While fulfilling their general education requirements, students are required to take a course, which increases their awareness of issues from a global/international perspective.

These courses are designed to expand the range of the student's understanding of cultures that are not derived principally from the western experience. A comparative perspective introduces students to the commonality and diversity of cultural responses to human issues. In order to fulfill the global awareness requirement, the content must be more than half the course.

Fulfillments may include:

- Subjects that help develop understandings of global interconnectedness
- Topics on global economies, justice, law and/or human rights
- Direct engagement with topics outside of the United States/Western framework

ATTACH SYLLABUS OF COURSE TO BE CONSIDERED.

Please describe specifically what aspects of instruction and assessment in the proposed course fulfill this requirement. (Attach a separate sheet if you need more room.)
