

MINUTES
CLAS CURRICULUM AND REQUIREMENTS COMMITTEE

Meeting of January 17, 1995

MEMBERS PRESENT: Professors Christensen, Eberhart, Hoerner, Taylor, Tierson, and Welshon.

FACULTY GUESTS: Professor Staley.

EX-OFFICIO: Stanbrough.

A. MINUTES - Approved for meeting of December 13, 1994.

B. NEW BUSINESS

Recommended approval of the following new courses:

ANTH 471 - Internship in Anthropology

COMM 415/515 - Communication for the Classroom Teacher

COMM 422/522 - Creative Communication

COMM 626 - Communication, Training, and Development

COMM 699 - Emerging Communication Technologies

C. AREA REQUIREMENTS REVIEW

The committee heard a presentation from Connie Staley suggesting that COMM 210, Speech and Thought, replace COMM 400, Rhetorical Dimensions of Communication, on the General Humanities area requirement list. The committee also reviewed area requirement forms for COMM 210, ID 120, ID 311, and ID 315, and additional information that was requested of Dr. Ballantyne.

With two exceptions, all courses were approved for the area requirements lists. Because there are so few upper division courses on the general humanities list, it was suggested that the communications faculty consider COMM 210 as an additional course rather than as a replacement course for COMM 400.

D. DISCUSSION TOPICS

Due to teaching obligations of committee members, there was no time for discussion of the intended topics (course outline form and committee guidelines). Therefore, the committee scheduled a special meeting at 8:00 a.m. on February 7th to discuss these issues and any area requirements courses that may be submitted prior to that date.

 Dean's Approval

The next regular meeting of the C & R committee will be on February 14, 1995, in Cragmor Hall 113 at 8:00 a.m. Please have agenda items to Jo Stanbrough no later than February 7.

If you are planning course changes effective fall semester, 1995, they MUST be on the February agenda.
