I. OLD BUSINESS

A. Minutes of February 16, 1988, approved.

II. NEW BUSINESS

A. New Course: GES 390/Hist 340-3, Historical Geography of the British Isles, approved.

B. New Course: HIST 386-3, Popular Culture in the 20th Century America. This course is approved to be offered through the Division of Continuing Education only. If this course is to become a part of the History Curriculum it must be resubmitted to the C&R Committee.

C. New Course: CHEM 101-4, Introduction to Chemistry, approved.

D. New Courses: 1. SL 250-3, Science of Exercise and Physical Fitness, approved. However, this course is not approved as an LAS Area Requirement lab course.

2. SL 251-1, Lab in Science of Exercise and Physical Fitness, approved. However, this lab course is not approved as an LAS Area Requirement lab course.

NOTE: The above two courses, SL 250-3 and SL 251-1, in their present form do not meet the rigorous requirements of the other LAS science courses that have been accepted as Natural Science Area Requirements Laboratory type courses. To be considered for the Area Requirements list, these courses can be resubmitted to the C&R Committee identifying a more controlled format along scientific principles, and defining the students responsibility for documenting and reporting the results of their progress and findings.

- E. New Course: BIOL 478/578, DNA Technology for Teachers, approved. The committee discussed the possible high cost of this type of course and voiced its concern that funds should not be drained from other programs to support its implementation.
- F. New Course: HON 445/HIST 490-3, Creators of Mathematics, A Historical View, approved, as changed. Rewrite the course description.
- G. Renumbering and New Course Titles for the third course in the Basic Language Sequence, approved as indicated:
 - 1. Change FR 103-4 to FR 211-4, Intermediate French
 - 2. Change GER 103-4 to GER 211-4, Intermediate German
 - 3. Change LAT 103-4 to LAT 211-4, Intermediate Latin
 - 4. Change SPAN 103-4 to SPAN 211-4, Intermediate Spanish
