

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
AT COLORADO SPRINGS

Curriculum and Requirements Committee
Meeting of November 17, 1983

Members Present: Professors D. Morley, C. Murphy, A. Schoffstall, and
T. Wynn
Ex Officio Present: Professors J. Klingel, J. Buchholz; W. Schultz
Faculty Present: Professors I. Blackburn, J. Hays, E. Kotz, C. Smith,
D. Swartzendruber, and F. Tierson

I. OLD BUSINESS

- A. Minutes of October 6, 1983, meeting, approved.
- B. New Courses
 - 1. History 463-3, Historic Preservation II, tabled; explanation needed on the direction of this program and statements by the participating departments in LAS on how it fits into their disciplines. A course description must be submitted and the hours will be changed to reflect 1-hour lecture and 2-hours of lab for 3-hours course credit.
 - 2. Biology 489-3, Advanced Flow Cytometry, approved.
 - 3. English 210/310, Applied Writing for Pre-Education, Pre-Business, and Pre-English Majors, tabled. T. Napierkowski will be invited to the next C&R meeting to explain the direction the English Composition program is taking.
 - 4. Foreign Culture Studies 305-3, Latin American Cultural Studies, approved. This course will be listed in each semester's Subject Schedule as either a lecture course or as a Field Trip Internship. This course can be taken twice for credit under separate titles.
 - 5. Music 153-3, Computer Music Composition, approved.

II. NEW BUSINESS

- A. New Course: Spanish 411, Women in Hispanic Literature, approved. Change course description to include the incorporation of Hispanic Literature in Women Studies. Contact M. Westkott on this course being included in the Women Studies program.
- B. New Course: Communication 424-3, Introduction to Organizational Communication, approved.
- C. Change: Change credit hours for Anthropology 220 and 230, from 3 to 4 credit hours, approved.
- D. Change: Change course number of Music 366 to Music 266, approved. The lower course number will make the offering less intimidating.

Approved by CAS C&R Committee - MAR 15, 1984 wog