*Interdepartmental
Memorandum*

At today's meeting of the Curriculum and Requirements Committee, the Committee voted to table your request for "Credit Change of MS 101, 102, 201, 202." Our reasons are as follows: 1). The courses in question do, in fact, receive University credit; they do not, however, receive LAS College credit. Are you requesting that they receive LAS credit? Please clarify, then, precisely what credit change you want us to consider relevant to these four courses. 2). Giving credit to MS courses may have ramifications on the College and University; indeed, these ramifications may well need College and University-wide consideration and approval. The Committee is wary, therefore, about acting on your request and going beyond the province of the Committee's charge.

After investigating these matters, the Committee will contact you about the possible re-submission of your request next semester. At that time, we will also ask you for a clearer statement about the nature of your request (as indicated in 1 above).

RE: Military Science Courses
DATE: March 2, 1983

The Curriculum and Requirement's Committee discussed briefly at Monday's meeting Military Science's request for credit change in M Sc 101, 102, 201, 202, which was tabled at the December meeting. They have examined the policies at the other CU campuses, and decided that at this time, the credits granted for these courses should remain as is: namely, the courses receive credit, but not towards an LAS degree.

We would appreciate receiving from your office any further information about the ways that schools in the district treat Military Science courses in terms of credit. Thanks.
