

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
AT COLORADO SPRINGS

COLLEGE OF LETTERS, ARTS AND SCIENCES

Curriculum and Requirements Committee
Meeting of April 25, 1983

Members Present: Professors Mattoon, Morley, Schoffstall, and Wynn
Ex Officio Present: Dr. Klingel, Buchholz, Martinez, and Schultz
Faculty Present: Professors Arangno, Bender, Coakley, Dukes, Dean Null, Staley, and Tierson

I. OLD BUSINESS

- A. Minutes of 28 February 1983 meeting approved.
- B. New Course: Physics and Energy Science 325-3, Mathematical Methods of Physics and Engineering, approved providing that Physics shows final syllabus to Chemistry.

II. NEW BUSINESS

- A. New Course: Communication 324, Business and Professional Communication, approved with the understanding that this course's syllabus be geared not to overlap with English 307.
- B. New Course: History 317-3, History of European Revolutions 1789-1921, approved. Subject outline will be returned to Professor for typing.
- C. New Course: History 320-3, World War II, approved as changed.
- D. New Course: Sociology 401, Seminar in Sociology - Special Topics, approved. Subject outline will be returned to Professor for typing. Subjects to be taught under special topics should be sent to C&R Committee for their approval, especially those courses to be taught by honorarium instructors.
- E. New Courses:
 - 1. Geology ____, Meteorites, tabled, as no instructor was available.
 - 2. Geology ____, Planetary Geology, tabled, as no instructor was available.

AUSTIN BLUFFS PARKWAY
POST OFFICE BOX 7150
COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO 80933-7150

Approved by CAS-C&R Committee. May 16, 1983 WOS

- F. New Course: Anthropology 300-3, Quantitative Methods, approved.
- G. New Course: Anthropology 132-3, Evolution/Creationism Conflict, approved.
- H. New Courses:
 - 1. Military Science 203-4, Summer Compression Course, approved, with stipulation that semester subject schedules indicate that this course is a repeat of MS 101, 102, 201, 202 courses. Repeated courses will not count towards graduation.
 - 2. Military Science 204-4, ROTC Basic Camp/MS 204, approved, with stipulation that each semester schedule indicates that this course is a repeat of MS 101, 102, 103, 202 courses. Repeated courses will not count towards graduation.
- I. New Course: Philosophy 216-3, Medical-Ethics, approved, as changed.
- J. New Course: Communication 425-3, Advanced Interpersonal Communication, approved.
- K. Point of Information:
 - Change in course title and description: Sociology 465-3, Sociology of Mental Illness, approved.
- L. Point of Interest:
 - Courses to be offered during vacation college should receive the same attention to detail and controls as regularly presented LAS courses.
- M. Dean Null presented an overview of the ROTC program at UCCS, since ROTC is a department under the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. The U.S. Army ROTC Department should present their program to C&R Committee as soon as possible.